

Essay contest winners

Central Middle School seventh graders Jeffery Blom, Landon Walters, and Caden Wippler were chosen as winners of the Ramsey County Bar Association Youth & the Law Committee's annual essay contest. The students wrote about: "Freedom of Speech and the Press is an enduring principle in America. How do influences such as globalization, cultural sensitivity, and new technologies provide new challenges to this principle?"

